Whereas, State Senator Jane Clare Orie, Majority Whip of the Senate of Pennsylvania, extends a warm and heartfelt congratulations to ATRP Solutions Inc., for the honor of being named a 2009 Rising Star Award Finalist by the Pittsburgh Technology Council; and

Whereas, the Pittsburgh Technology Council held this event on Thursday, the 15th Day of October, 2009 at the David L. Lawrence Convention Center in down town Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania. The criteria to be honored at this ceremony stated that each technology company must be headquartered in either Allegheny County or the 12 counties surrounding the City of Pittsburgh. Furthermore, companies were considered based on product advancement, sales, and employment growth. Each company that received a nomination now shares the privilege of being considered one of Pittsburgh's most successful and innovative technology companies; and

Whereas, the Commonwealth is always proud and honored to pay tribute to those great companies that work diligently to ensure a better future for all of our citizens. Through the advancement of technology, we are able to ensure a better quality of life for future generations. All of the companies being honored by the Pittsburgh Technology Council have shown a commitment to the betterment of both society today and in the future; and now

Therefore, a copy of this document sponsored by State Senator Jane Clare Orie, Majority Whip, is presented to ATRP Solutions Inc. with sincere congratulations on this prestigious recognition. May ATRP Solutions Inc. be abundantly blessed for many years to come.
